

IV. Pounds of Nutrients by River Basin and County

The figure below illustrates the requirement amounts in pounds of nitrogen and phosphorus that the EEP is responsible for providing through the Nutrient Offset Program. The figure also shows the distribution of these requirements among participating counties. Wake County is by far the most active area for nutrient-offset payments.

